

The United States Of America

In recent years there has been an attack on the United States. A slanderous misrepresentation intended to divide us as a nation by race, politics and social class. All of this (I believe) is an attack by Satan with the purpose of creating hell on earth, through socialism. I'm speaking specifically of the 1619 project. The authors of this ideology are either uneducated in American history or bald face liars. Personally, I think it's the latter.

First, I would like to point out that the United States constitution wasn't even ratified until 1788. Therefore the United States didn't even exist prior to that. Prior to 1788 we were under the rule of the English crown. King George was sending men to Africa to kidnap men, bring them to the North American continent and selling them in the slave market. Now obviously there was a market for slaves or he wouldn't have brought them here. But the vast majority of colonials were abolitionists. So what is an abolitionist? The root of the word is abolish. They wanted to abolish slavery. Right now someone might say " but most of the founders had slaves!" and they would be correct. Some one might even ask "why didn't the founders just free their slaves if they didn't morally agree with slavery? These are legitimate questions. English law said that if you inherited a slave, you could not free them. England was making money hand over fist in the slave trade. but they didn't want the responsibility of having a citizenry composed of indignant people that they, themselves, had uprooted from foreign lands.

For the majority of the colonies this and this alone was the reason for rebellion. Taxes became the reason when they couldn't get Georgia and South Carolina on board. If you notice at the beginning of the declaration of independence it says "unanimous". They all had to be of one accord. If King George had found one little crack in their unity he would have exploited it.

Here is a little information I gathered online.

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND THE DEBATE OVER SLAVERY

When Thomas Jefferson included a passage attacking slavery in his draft of the Declaration of Independence it initiated the most intense debate among the delegates gathered at Philadelphia in the spring and early summer of 1776. Jefferson's passage on slavery was the most important section removed from the final document. It was replaced with a more ambiguous passage about King George's incitement of "domestic insurrections among us." Decades later Jefferson blamed the removal of the passage on delegates from South Carolina and Georgia and Northern delegates who represented merchants who were at the time actively involved in the Trans-Atlantic slave trade. Jefferson's original passage on slavery appears below.

He has waged cruel war against human nature itself, violating its most sacred rights of life and liberty in the persons of a distant people who never offended him, captivating & carrying them into slavery in another hemisphere or to incur miserable death in their transportation thither. This piratical warfare, the opprobrium of infidel powers, is the warfare of the Christian King of Great Britain. Determined to keep open a market where Men should be bought & sold, he has prostituted his negative for suppressing every legislative attempt to prohibit or restrain this execrable commerce. And that this assemblage of horrors might want no fact of distinguished die, he is now exciting those very people to rise in arms among us, and to purchase that liberty of which he has deprived them, by murdering the people on whom he has obtruded them: thus paying off former crimes committed against the Liberties of one people, with crimes which he urges them to commit against the lives of another.

If that doesn't prove the 1619 project false, please consider this. If the United States government was officially formed in 1788 with the ratification of our constitution. And slavery ended in 1865 at the closing of the civil war, that means it only took 77 years to end slavery in the United states. One life time. I grant you that it was entirely too long for the poor souls that had to live in bondage. But no other nation on this planet that had slavery, ended it as quickly as we did. My 4th great grandfather lived in Tennessee and witnessed that evil, and went north to fight for the Union Army to end it. I'm very proud of that. It speaks to the character of my ancestry. He was a Christian man and concerned himself with morality. The majority of our nation's great men fell into this category so I want to leave you with a few quotes and prayers from our founding fathers.

John Adams: "The Bible contains the most profound philosophy, the most perfect morality, and the most refined policy that ever was conceived upon earth."

1. John Quincy Adams: "[The Bible] is of all books in the world that which contributes most to make men good, wise, and happy."
2. Elias Boudinot: "Were you to ask me to recommend the most valuable book in the world, I should fix on the Bible as the most instructive, both to the wise and ignorant."
3. John Jay: "Let us therefore persevere steadfastly in distributing the Scriptures far and near, and without note or comment. We are assured that they 'are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness (2 Tim. 3:16).'"
4. Thomas Jefferson: "The doctrines of Jesus are simple, and tend all to the happiness of man. ... Had the doctrines of Jesus been preached always as pure as they came from his lips, the whole civilized world would now have been Christian."
5. Benjamin Rush: "The Bible contains more truths than any other book in the world."

George Washington Prayers

Almighty God, and most merciful father, who didst command the children of Israel to offer a daily sacrifice to thee, that thereby they might glorify and praise thee for thy protection both night and day, receive, O Lord, my morning sacrifice which I now offer up to thee; I yield thee humble and hearty thanks that thou has preserved me from the danger of the night past, and brought me to the light of the day, and the comforts thereof, a day which is consecrated to thine own service and for thine own honor. Let my heart, therefore, Gracious God, be so affected with the glory and majesty of it, that I may not do mine own works, but wait on thee, and discharge those weighty duties thou requirest of me, and since thou art a God of pure eyes, and wilt be sanctified in all who draw near unto thee, who doest not regard the sacrifice of fools, nor hear sinners who tread in thy courts, pardon, I beseech thee, my sins, remove them from thy presence, as far as the east is from the west, and accept of me for the merits of thy son Jesus Christ, that when I come into thy temple, and compass thine altar, my prayers may come before thee as incense; and as thou wouldst hear me calling upon thee in my prayers, so give me grace to hear thee calling on me in thy word, that it may be wisdom, righteousness, reconciliation and peace to the saving of the soul in the day of the Lord Jesus. Grant that I may hear it with reverence, receive it with meekness, mingle it with faith, and that it may accomplish in me, Gracious God, the good work for which thou has sent it. Bless my family, kindred, friends and country, be our God & guide this day and for ever for his sake, who lay down in the Grave and arose again for us, Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

O most Glorious God, in Jesus Christ my merciful and loving father, I acknowledge and confess my guilt, in the weak and imperfect performance of the duties of this day. I have called on thee for pardon and forgiveness of sins, but so coldly and carelessly, that my prayers are become my sin and stand in need of pardon. I have heard thy holy word, but with such deadness of spirit that I have been an unprofitable and forgetful hearer, so that, O Lord, tho' I have done thy work, yet it hath been so negligently that I may rather expect a curse than a blessing from thee. But, O God, who art rich in mercy and plenteous in redemption, mark not, I beseech thee, what I have done amiss; remember that I am but dust, and remit my transgressions, negligences & ignorances, and cover them all with the absolute obedience of thy dear Son, that those sacrifices which I have offered may be accepted by thee, in and for the sacrifice of Jesus Christ offered upon the cross for me; for his sake, ease me of the burden of my sins, and give me grace that by the call of the Gospel I may rise from the slumber of sin into the newness of life. Let me live according to those holy rules which thou hast this day prescribed in thy holy word; make me to know what is acceptable in thy holy word; make me to know what is acceptable in thy sight, and therein to delight, open the eyes of my understanding, and help me thoroughly to examine myself concerning my knowledge, faith and repentance, increase my faith, and direct me to the true object Jesus Christ the way, the truth and the life, bless O Lord, all the people of this land, from the highest to the lowest, particularly those whom thou has appointed to rule over us in church & state. continue thy goodness to me this night. These weak petitions I humbly implore thee to hear and accept and for the sake of thy Dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Christian Quotes from John Adams

"We recognize no Sovereign but God, and no King but Jesus!"

"[July 4th] ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty."

"The second day of July, 1776, will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations, from one s achieved independence were the general principles of Christianity. I will avow that I then believed, and now believe, that those general principles of Christianity are as eternal and immutable as the existence and attributes of God."end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever."

"We have no government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion (Biblical Christianity). Avarice, ambition, revenge, or gallantry, would break the the strongest cords of our Constitution as a whale goes through a net. Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious (Christian) people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."

"The Hebrews have done more to civilize men than any other nation. If I were an atheist, and believed blind eternal fate, I should still believe that fate had ordained the Jews to be the most essential instrument for civilizing the nations."

"The moment the idea is admitted into society that property is not as sacred as the laws of God, and there is not a force of law and public justice to protect it, anarchy and tyranny commence"

"Suppose a nation in some distant Region should take the Bible for their only law Book, and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there exhibited! Every member would be obliged in conscience, to temperance, frugality, and industry; to justice, kindness, and charity towards his fellow men; and to piety, love, and reverence toward Almighty God ... What a Eutopia, what a Paradise would this region be."

"I have examined all religions, as well as my narrow sphere, my straightened means, and my busy life, would allow; and the result is that the Bible is the best Book in the world. It contains more philosophy than all the libraries I have seen."

"You have rights antecedent to all earthly governments: rights that cannot be repealed or restrained by human laws; rights derived from the Great Legislator of the universe."

"Let them revere nothing but religion (Christianity), morality and liberty."

"A Constitution of Government once changed from Freedom, can never be restored. Liberty, once lost, is lost forever." John Adams
